

Please do NOT let the NAB stifle competition and innovation. It always bugs me when someone tries to stop others from succeeding rather than better themselves to compete on an even playing field . I love my satellite radio service and would like to enjoy new new features that XM has planned. I think the NAB's attempt to stop XM from providing local content is anticompetative and does not provide me the consumer with the best choice of products.